STOLE FOR THE SICK

FERNERY ROBBED TO BRIGHTEN UP HOSPITAL.

Young Ladies Wind Up in Police Court
Where They Are Properly Talked
To—Christmas Story of Wailuku.

Wailuku, Dec. 22.—The school children of the Wailuku Union school were given a picnic yesterday at Kahului by their teachers, Mrs. W. A. McKay and the Misses Margaret Nape and Rowena Richardson. The children declared that they had a most enjoyable time at Kahului beach.

During the absence of Mrs. McKay some girls took advantage of it and went and pilfered all her magnificent ferns growing in the hot house. One of them took a bunch of maiden hair ferns at the Malani hospital, and on being questioned where they got the ferns replied that they were from Mrs. Lamb's (one of the inmates) fernery at Iao valley. Mrs. Lamb of course told the girls to bring down the fern which they did in quick order, and in a short time the quarters of the sisters at Malani hospital were bowers of green ferneries. But lo! when Mrs. McKay got home that evening she discovered that all her ferns were missing. The police were notified and the girls and the ferns were located.

Six of the girls appeared before Magistrate Robertson this morning to answer to charges of larceny to which the girls pleaded guilty, and the Magistrate dismissed them all with a fair warning. These girls do not belong to the Wailuku school and the majority of them did not know where their ring-leaders got the ferns from as they only helped transfer their booty to the hospital.

JUDGE ROBERTSON RESIGNS.

Wailuku, Dec. 22.—First District Magistrate G. B. Robertson of Wailuku has tendered his resignation to take effect January 1st, 1901, when W. A. McKay will be reinstated. Mr. Robertson has proved himself to be a very fair and judicious magistrate during the nine months he has held the judicial reins of the Wailuku district court. Mr. Robertson will open a business agency in Wailuku in connection with the Maui News and his friends wish him success in his new enterprise.

"Friends, Respect the Dead"

In a Liverpool theater some time ago a melodrama was performed which had a peculiarly grim ending, for no less than six of the characters at the close of the fourth act lay dead upon the stage. Then it was the curtain's turn. It ought to have come down, but it stuck badly. The "dead" became restless. They peeped at each other, wondering if they would ever be released from their awkward positions. Then the audience began to titter; it tittered more; then it laughed outright. The situation had become intolerable, when one of the "dead" rose, solemnly faced the audience, and, raising his hand beseechingly, said, "Friends, respect the dead!" Then he went back and lay with his friends, and the laughter broke out afresh. There was nothing for it but that the "dead" should solemnly walk off, one after the other.

Kepoika's 39th Birthday

Wailuku, Dec. 22.—Hon. A. N. Kepoika attained his 39th birthday last Wednesday, Dec. 17th. During the afternoon an excellent dinner was given at the home of Mr. Kepoika to which a few of his most intimate friends were invited. Among the number were Messrs. E. Hoffmann, W. T. Robinson, T. B. Lyons, Geo. H. Cummings and Jas. N. K. Keola.

A great disappointment was the lot of a man whose geographical knowledge was not his strong point. He thought for long where he would go for a summer holiday, and at last decided upon Harrogate, where he went to a large hotel. In the morning he was early up, and astonished the waiter by asking him the nearest way to the sea! When he discovered that it was within neither walking nor driving distance he was extremely irate, and wondered what on earth was meant by calling it a watering place. "Plenty of water, sir, Pump room, sir, smells much stronger than the sea, sir!"—Australian Star.

W. Berliowitz, C. F. Bush, L. A. Andrews, Mrs. McCarriston, W. F. Forbes, H. Waterhouse, Mrs. Emily Rice, J. K. Burkett and C. Graham were among the arrivals from Kauai ports in the W. G. Hall Sunday.

WAIKAEA IMPROVEMENTS

Hilo, Dec. 21.—During the past two years the Waikae Mill Co. have completely renewed the various portions of their mill, so that now it contains the latest and most approved machinery in every particular and is one of the best equipped mills upon the islands, with corresponding excellent results in quality of product and saving of time, labor and expense in production. Mr. C. C. Kennedy has just completed the installation of the recently devised system of evaporation known as the Little Triple Effect, which was first introduced to the islands about two years ago at Oahu plantation, which adopted it shortly after it was invented. Waikae is as yet the only plantation upon this island which has installed this system although Honokua and Pahala will have it in this year, and it will be considered an essential feature in the equipment of all mills hereafter. A written description of the mechanical details of the Little Triple Effect cannot be made clear without drawings and some elementary knowledge at least of the manufacture of sugar, but the point of interest to the reader will be that it causes a saving to the plantation of men and time such as but few if any inventions in sugar machinery have. Mr. Kennedy says that the output of sugar per day this year over that of last will be not less than twenty-five tons, enabling it to do the work of production to commence much earlier in the day and continue to a much later hour, while its various automatic features allow more or less of the manual labor to be dispensed with.

The Waikae Mill Co. has also installed a complete set of new boilers this year, the contract for which was taken by Verry & Carter. A new smoke stack 130 feet in height has also been built the present year. Many tons of steel entered into the construction and it is lined with 20,000 bricks. If you don't believe it count them, the draft is strong enough to carry you to the top. This is bolted firmly to a massive foundation of stone and concrete and is unique in that it is supported by guys.

PHILIPPINE POLICE.

Manila, Dec. 13.—The Taft Committee has passed an act authorizing General MacArthur to establish police in the cities and towns and appropriating $150,000 for their maintenance.

Commissioner Wright, who is assigned to supervise the establishment of a constabulary, among other duties, said the establishment of a local police force was a necessary feature of civil government and was approved by the military government. An act was also passed providing for the retention in office of the municipal councilors elected under order of the military government under a general municipal law was passed. The terms of some of the councilors expire in January. The elections for councilors are suspended.

Finally a bill was passed directing the civil service board to examine and report on the readjustment of the salaries of civil employees.

Circuit Court Chambers

Judge Humphreys has ordered judgment entered for plaintiff in the suit of Cecil Brown vs. Theresa O. Wilcox, Thomas R. Lucas and Charles Wilcox.

W. H. Cornwell answers the complaint of J. A. Magoon with a general denial.

The annual account of E. F. Bishop, trustee of the estate of Jas. G. Hayseiden, balances at $2420.60. The value of the estate is $30,548.38.

Dong Young Kee has discontinued his suit against the New Zealand Insurance Co.
